

Examples of Client Side Processing

Client Side Definition

Client side scripting enables interaction within a page. The code required to process user input is downloaded and compiled by the browser or plug in.

